Assistant/Associate Professor of Business

Department: Business and Technology
Position: Full-time tenure-track (10-month) faculty position beginning August 2016
Salary Range: $40,000-$49,000
Posting Date: October 2015

Description

The University of Montana Western seeks applicants for an assistant/associate professor tenure-track position within the Department of Business and Technology.

The successful candidate will primarily teach undergraduate courses in Economics or related field. Faculty workload includes teaching 12 credits per semester, advising, scholarly activities, and professional service. This position reports to the Provost.

Required Qualifications

The successful candidate will hold a Ph.D. in economics, Agricultural Economics or a related area. Consideration will be given for candidates who are ABD, but with specific graduation completion date. Previous teaching experience is preferred. The successful candidate will have demonstrated effective leadership, excellence in teaching and strong interest in or experience with experiential teaching, the ability to work collegially with others, evidence or potential of scholarly work, and business and industry experience.

Salary Range

Negotiable within range established by faculty collective bargaining agreement.

Application

Application materials should include a state application (available at http://www.umwestern.edu/job-opportunities.html ) a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, copies of all university level transcripts and names and contact information for at least four professional references. Review of applications will begin Nov. 15, 2015 and continue until the position is filled. Application material should be sent electronically to:

Cecil Jones, JD
Professor of Business and Technology
cecil.jones@umwestern.edu
The University & Dillon Area

The University of Montana Western, located in Dillon, Mont., is an innovative institution nestled in a scenic valley in the Rocky Mountains of south western Montana. The campus Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) for student enrollment is approximately 1,350. Montana Western has over 60 FTE faculty members, features small classes for all students and has been recognized for excellence by U.S. News and World Report. Montana Western’s small size and focus on education innovation have earned it the reputation of being a place where faculty and staff chose to collegially and creatively make a difference in the education of students. Montana Western is the first and only public four-year college in the nation to use block scheduling in which students take a single class at a time. This immersion learning program facilitates increased opportunities for experiential types of learning.

The mission of the University of Montana Western is to achieve academic excellence by sustaining a culture of concentrated experiential education. Montana Western services citizens of all ages with its academic, community service, and lifelong-learning programs. As part of the global community, Montana Western encourages diversity, international awareness, environmental responsibility, and mastery of technology as a gateway to the world.

Dillon, a community of 5,000 people, is known for outstanding public schools, safe environments, recreational opportunities and an excellent quality of life.

The University of Montana Western is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and encourages applications from qualified women, minorities, veterans and people with disabilities. Qualified candidates may request veterans, or disabilities preference in accordance with state law. Reasonable accommodations are provided in the hiring process for persons with disabilities. Finalists for this position will be subject to a criminal background investigation.